IMPORTANT: If you are using COM or COL on products produced at two different facilities, such as Interwoven seating and Kimball seating you must have the correct yardage or square footage amounts shipped to both manufacturing facilities. Do not ship it to just one facility.

IMPORTANT: Include the following information with all COM/COL shipments:

- Dealer name
- Dealer PO number
- Model number(s) for application
- Sales order number, if applicable

Codes & Regulations:

All COM/COL must meet application codes and regulations, including TB117-2013, California Proposition 65, and California AB 2998.

By selecting COM/COL, customer certifies that the material meets such codes and regulations. Customer is solely responsible for compliance and may contact the fabric manufacturer to confirm certification or Kimball for assistance.

Kimball strives to create upholstered products with no added fire retardants. Written documentation, preferably from the material manufacturer, is required confirming that fabric or leather (COM/COL) provided by the customer does NOT contain any added fire retardant chemicals. Kimball will label the product(s) with "Contains no added flame retardant chemicals."
