A Reputation for Excellence

Kimball Office is a design-driven, technologically savvy brand that has been an industry leader since its inception in 1970. We are proud to be a brand unit of Kimball International, a publicly-traded company that has been recognized as a trustworthy company in 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016—one of only very few companies to earn the designation for multiple years. Our history and our heritage are deeply rooted in excellence—a tradition we intend to continue well into the future—and our products have earned numerous awards and have been featured in TV and film, as well as in some of the highest profile offices in the United States.

More Than Product Solutions

At Kimball Office, we offer a large portfolio of durable, sustainable, and flexible products at an affordable price. You’ll get the most out of your office spaces (and your budget) because we make it easy to create furniture solutions that meet your specific needs. Our complete support network can help you with multiple tasks such as space planning, product specification, fast delivery, and professional installation. You won’t find a better value or better partners.

Our services include:

- A dedicated service team, including customer service specialists that work exclusively with public agencies. They will answer your questions, help manage your projects, and take care of special requests. Contact them by phone at 800.647.2010 or by email at kog@kimball.com
- Highly skilled, trained, and certified authorized dealer network to support your requirements. Visit www.kimballoffice.com to find a dealer near you.
- EDI order processing, invoicing electronically, and acceptance of credit cards, are all available in an effort to save you time, reduce paperwork, and ensure accuracy.
- Lead time for our complete product offering is just three-four weeks. But if you need furniture faster, you can get many of our most popular products in five days or less through our Kwik Office program.

Tradition

Deeply rooted in American tradition and driven by a passionate pride of self, place, and product, Kimball Office quickly achieved success in the marketplace upon its founding. With a reputation for fine craftsmanship, product quality second to none, and an innate ability to provide on time and quick delivery, Kimball Office, quickly, became one of the industry’s most trusted and reliable leaders.

Sustainability

Our efforts to be one of the industry’s environmental leaders and one of the most proactive in developing sustainability initiatives and practices goes back all the way to the founding of Kimball International. We have made continual progress as a responsible steward of resources and as agents of true sustainable change in the industry. As we continue to chart our sustainability plans for the future, we do so with the importance of the environment ingrained in our very being. Our employees, customers, and communities have shaped our culture and we, wholeheartedly, believe that, together, we can create a better world.

Products may contribute to LEED credits. Please refer to our ecoScorecard™, located at kimballoffice.ecoscorecard.com, for details.
