

Kimball International Announces Pop-up New York City Showroom Location

JASPER, IN., September 13, 2022 -- Kimball International is preparing to open a pop-up location in the heart of Manhattan, NY. Located in the Flatiron neighborhood, this 3rd floor space offers an industrial aesthetic with high ceilings and original hardwood floors. It creates an intriguing backdrop to showcase Kimball International's workplace, healthcare, and education focused furniture solutions.

The New York space highlights Kimball International's multi-branded portfolio and elevates their status as a design resource within the A&D community. With a focus on showcasing new products and pivotal solutions specifically selected for the NYC market, this space also includes a collaborative co-create lounge and a listening parlor for their Alternative Design Podcast.

"We are excited to join the New York metropolitan area," said Jessica Gubbins, Senior Director of Marketing for Kimball International. "Our goal is to create an experiential showroom and engage with clients to create transformative environments for a wide variety of users within workplace, health, and education sectors. This space will directly serve our customers and design partners."

Opening in mid-October, this location brings Kimball International's workplace brands (Kimball, National, Etc., Interwoven, and Poppin) into the New York market. This location not only offers furniture experiences but brings research-driven insights and design-focused events to the market. This pop-up concept is the first in a piloted program that Kimball International is launching to broaden its showroom experiences in key markets.
